ORDER

13 Pending before the Court is Mr. Zornes' pro se Motion to Modify Supervised Release.
14 Mr. Zornes requests that the terms of his supervised release be modified to permit him to 15 drink alcohol in moderation. He alleges that the Court made a clerical error when mandating 16 that he not consume alcohol as a condition of his release. The Court clarifies that it did not 17 err. However, court staff discussed Mr. Zornes' request with United States Probation Officer 18 David McCary who indicated he had no objection to the requested modification.

19 Additionally, Mr. Zornes requests appointment of a new attorney. He indicates that he 20 has not received a response from his attorney after several attempts to contact him. The Court 21 notes that Mr. Johnson was appointed for the limited purpose of pursuing an appeal. Mr. Dan 22 Johnson filed an affidavit summarizing progress on the case and indicating that he wrote a 23 letter to Mr. Zornes on August 30, 2007. If Mr. Zornes continues to have difficulties
